

Pitts Theology Library

Greetings from Pitts Theology Library!

It goes without saying that the extensive and diverse collection at Pitts is due in part to the institution's continuing conversation with Candler and Emory's students, faculty, and staff. Our acquisitions should first and foremost support the present and future teaching, research, and service missions of the Candler School of Theology, as well as those of the Graduate Division of Religion and Emory University.

In consideration of the above, Pitts is expanding its reach about ongoing acquisitions and new resources by providing each tract with monthly reports via the New Acquisitions Newsletter.

Please find newly released resources in the History and Interpretation of Christianity tract below, and don't hesitate to make purchase suggestions by visiting pitts.emory.edu/suggest.

Highlights of New Book Acquisitions

Illness and Authority: Disability in the Life and Lives of Francis of Assisi by Donna Trembinski

Dr. Donna Trembinski examines the lived experience and early stories about St. Francis of Assisi through the lens of disability studies. This new approach re-centers Francis's illnesses and infirmities and highlights how they became barriers to wielding traditional modes of

Christian Divination in Late Antiquity by Robert Wisniewski

In Late Antiquity, people commonly sought to acquire knowledge about the past, the present, and the future, using a variety of methods. This book is devoted to the study of such practices and their practitioners, and provides answers to essential questions concerning this phenomenon.

masculine authority within both the Franciscan Order he founded and the church hierarchy.

Thinking About Animals in Thirteenth-century Paris: Theologians on the Boundary Between Humans and Animals by Ian P. Wei

Ian P. Wei presents extended close readings of William of Auvergne, the Summa Halensis, Bonaventure, Albert the Great and Thomas Aquinas. This study thus reveals how animals became a crucial resource for generating knowledge of

Hybrid Hate: Conflations of Antisemitism and Anti-Black Racism from the Renaissance to the Third Reich by Tudor Parfitt

Hybrid Hate is the first book to study the conflation of antisemitism and anti-Black racism. In this book, Tudor Parfitt investigates the development of antisemitism, anti-Black racism, and race theory in the West from the Renaissance to the
