Acts 2:1-21
2:1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

2:2 And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

2:3 Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

2:4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them power.

The African American Lectionary

A rare opportunity to participate in this innovative effort by channeling something of the cultural and historical motherload that is essential to the understanding and sharing of the African American spiritual core.

Welcome
Thank you for visiting the website of The African American Lectionary. The Lectionary concluded placing new material on its site as of December 2013 but the website will remain up until December 2016. As of December 2013, the website contained more than 200,000 pages of free material. Feel free to read the material online or print it. Most of the 2006-2013 material is timeless and can be used for years to come. Simply ignore the dates of the

Worship Resources: Advent

About Advent

In the Western Church, Advent begins the Sunday closest to St. Andrew’s Day (Nov. 30) and lasts for the 4 Sundays immediately preceding Christmas. In the Eastern Church, Advent begins in the middle of November. Advent marks the beginning of the liturgical year. Although Advent is no longer formally a fasting period, as is Lent, it continues to mark a quiet period of preparation, both for Christmas and...
